FEAR AT BRIGHTON BEACH.

UNEXPECTED ARRESTS AND INCREASE IN POLICE FORCE BRING DISMAY.

Tony Bonero Defeats Zienap in the Chief Race of the Day—Black Mary Scores Again—Mid-get Rider Upton in Great Luck.

New York, July 14.—The general confidence of the past week in racing circles received a rude shock at Brighton Beach today. Layers and bettors alike had begun to believe themselves safe from police interference, therefore the six arrests of the afternoon for alleged violation of the anti-betting law produced a disheartening effect on almost every one concerned. The general feeling of gloom was increased by an accident that befell Robador during the running of the steeplechase, which may have a fatal termination for his rider, jockey E. Heider. In falling over the third from the last obstacle Robador turned a complete somersault, landing with his whole weight right on top of the rider. Heider was immediately removed to the Coney Island Emergency Hospital, where he at last reports had not regained consciousness.

It was distinctly unpleasant to Brighton visitors to find a big increase of uniformed police on their arrival. Today there were about twice as many on hand as on any previous day since the meeting opened, and this in itself was very discouraging. Despite the lowering skies and the predictions of the weather forecaster for certain rain, the attendance was fully up to the 6,000 mark. The card was good and, with the exception of the unwieldy opening and closing races, which contained seventeen and twelve starters respectively, was made up of average-sized fields of fair-class horses.

Favorites just about held their own, the victors of Ragman, Frizette and Paprika being profitable to the public. Upton, the promising apprentice jockey, enjoyed the unaccustomed honor of riding two winners, Black Mary and Frizette, in one afternoon. The chief attraction, the fourth race, at midday and a sixteenth, was captured by Tony Bonero in spread-eagle style. The heavily backed four-year-old simply played with Zienap, Antaeus, Disobedient and Umbrella, opposition in name only, and ran the distance in 1:46. The fractional time in this race was remarkably fast. With Earl G. out of her way, Frizette had only a short run to beat, and she was pitted against her in the third race. The 2 to 5 quoted against the Wernberg filly seemed an unusually lucrative price.

A torrential downpour of rain occurred shortly after the finish of the last race, which was run in a windstorm. Thousands of race-goers were delayed on their homeward journey.

Six arrests, two of minor importance in the field and four in the main inclosure, for alleged violation of the anti-betting law, were made during the afternoon. The well-known Metropolitan Turf Association bookmaker, Harry Hoffman, and his entire crew, including — Buckley and William Heaney, respectively, were taken into custody for the book, were apprehended on the brick lawn in front of the grandstand just before the running of the steeplechase, the fifth race on the program. John Coyle, one of Vendig's outside men, was taken into custody only a few minutes before. Because of the prominence of the men involved more excitement and apprehension among layers and race-goers was shown than at any time since the present anti-racing crusade was inaugurated. It had the effect of causing a majority of the operators to retire from business.

A good source of information ascribes the motives behind today's raid of which everybody at the track was forewarned early, to the desire of the Kings County grand jury to obtain evidence as to how the registration of wagers is being done. It is stated as a fact that some half dozen bookmakers have been under surveillance and their methods noted for the past ten days, and that the thirty-six detectives in plain clothes present at the track today had been sent there by the acting district attorney for the express purpose of rounding up the entire lot. Luckily, but one of the intended victims and his clerk were doing business. The same authority affirms that Elder has had twelve Langan private detective agency men on the job every day since the Brighton Beach meeting opened.

The following announcement was issued after the races at Brighton Beach today: "The stewards of the meeting have recommended that the further entries of the horse Beardsall be refused at Brighton Beach. The license of trainer A. Carter is also suspended and his case has been referred to the stewards of the Jockey Club for further action." Beardsall ran in the first race today, but no particulars were furnished in his case. It is thought that the report of Dr. Saylor, the official veterinary surgeon on the Jockey Club tracks, as to the condition of the horse while in the paddock, both before and after the race, was responsible for the foregoing severe ruling of the local stewards.

The steeplechase on the program for next Thursday has been declared off and a flat race for three-year-olds, non-winners in 1908, one mile and a sixteenth has been substituted, added money $500, weights 110 pounds and the winner to be entered to be sold at auction for $500.

A. J. Joyner will leave tomorrow for Saratoga with the last of the Whitney racers. The trainer leaves his own string, including Hessian, Cressina, Rialto, Cairngorm, Golden Pearl, six two-year-olds of his own and three belonging to August Belmont, behind in charge of his own trainer, John Schlosser, for the remainder of the Brighton Beach meeting.

Jockey Musgrave was suspended on Monday for three days by the starter.

Thomas Welch, of the Newcastle Stable, acquired J. A. Bonnet's fast two-year-old, Uncle Jim, today at private sale.

Charles Edward pulled up lame after a six furlongs work this morning in 1:15. It is said to be chronic with this phenomenonally fast horse.

The Coney Island Jockey Club's rich array of autumn stakes will close tomorrow.

New York, July 14.—The change in the racing schedule for the August meetings of the Saratoga and Empire City Racing Associations affects only Saratoga and Empire City. The other fall meetings will be held on the original dates, and the Westchester Association and Brooklyn Jockey Club will, it is said on excellent authority, decide the stakes already closed at their original advertised values.

The overnight programs may not be up to the standards of other years, but if the attendance at Brighton and Saratoga in August justifies it better purses than have been given since the beginning of the Sheephead Bay June meeting will be offered.

The order of the autumnal meetings will be Sheephead Bay, Brighton Beach, Gravesend, Belmont Park, Empire City, Jamaica and Aqueduct.

There will be racing at Baltimore, and the Washington Jockey Club is trying to make arrangements to run off its fall stakes. The Dixie, Vestal, Junior Steeplechase, Washington Cup, Maximum and Benning Special are some of the best known of eastern fixtures.

FAVORITES HAVE THEIR WAY AT WINDSOR.

Lawrence P. Daley Wins Easily—Simcoe Adds Another to His String of Victories.

Detroit, Mich., July 14.—Favorite backers came into their own at Windsor this afternoon, five of the seven races being won by first choices. All were heavily backed and this meant that the books suffered their first heavy losses of the meeting. The attendance was large and the sport good. Three of the races produced driving finishes and in the first two it was hard to tell which had won until the official placing was displayed. There were some who disagreed with the placing in the first race, which gave first money to Rose F., many thinking that Royal Artillery had lasted long enough.

The Cook stable furnished two of the winners, one for its owner in Lawrence P. Daley and one for his trainer in Tom Dolan. Both were favorites and both won easily. John Madigan's good two-year-old, Simcoe, added another to his list of victories by winning the second race, in which he met a band of speedy youngsters. Simcoe gave away weight to everything in the race, showed a fine turn of speed and won in record time for the track.

Several more owners have announced their intention of shipping to Quebec. On Thursday the following will leave: Woods Garth with his big string of fifteen; J. W. Burtisell with ten; W. B. Brien with eight and P. M. Civill with a half dozen. Civill purchased of T. P. Hayes this morning the following horses which will be included in his Quebec shipment: Funiculaire, Hollow and a maiden two-year-old filly.

Arrangements are being made to transfer the contract which R. E. Watkins holds on John Delaby to the lad's uncle. The latter arrived from Chicago yesterday and will remain here until the matter is fixed up. In the event of the deal being consummated Delaby's interests will be looked after by Ben Jacobs, who managed jockey J. Lee in the west during the last two years.

John Madigan, the Canadian turfman, who is largely interested in the New Niagara Jockey Club, returned from Buffalo this morning. He says that arrangements have been made with the Buffalo Jockey Club for the use of Kenilworth Park during the Fort Erie meeting. This means that the New Niagara Jockey Club will be able to provide accommodations for 1,600 horses.

Joseph E. Seagram's big string will be shipped to Fort Erie from Toronto next week, as will also the horses owned by Thomas E. Clyde, R. F. Carman, Fred Cook, Talbot Bros., Turney Bros., William Shields, C. K. Ellison and Pat Dunne.

Glimmer spread his foot in the third race and this accounts for his poor performance.

Gene Austin, a New York bookmaker, was among the new arrivals. He will probably join the ranks of the layers operating here within the next few days.

Barney Schreiber held a birthday party at Windsor this afternoon. The genial German was congratulated by his many friends and his health drank to in rousing big bumpers of champagne. Mr. Schreiber confesses to forty-two summers, which still gives him a chance of becoming a benedict.

CENTRE SHOT DEFEATS GLORIO AT SEATTLE.

Seattle, Wash., July 14.—Showers that fell during the night affected the going at The Meadows only for a short distance out from the rail on the turns. The track otherwise was fast and most of the contenders were able to give the bad going a wide berth. But those that happened to get in it lost all chances. Several records had a close shave during the afternoon. Centre Shot's six furlongs in 1:12 in winning the Wilburton Handicap, which equaled the existing record, being the closest call. Steel, Miss Officious, Centre Shot and Varieties made up a quartette of winning favorites.

Centre Shot's handicap victory was achieved in a manner leaving no room for doubt that she is at the height of her form. At that Glorio, which suffered her first local defeat, was probably unlucky to lose to her, for he encountered costly interference in the early stages of the contest and gamely made up several lengths of lost ground in the stretch. At the end he was gaining on her and the finish was highly exciting.

Jockey Keogh will be seen no more in the saddle for some time, possibly not during the remainder of the meeting, having been suspended by D. A. Ross, his employer, on account of unsatisfactory riding of late.

H. H. Kennedy, who has persistently "boasted" Matt Reis' horses on account of a petty personal grievance, bid Miss Officious up $200 over her entered price. It is intimated that the officials will take care of the matter up to the well-being of the turf.

"English Bill" Jackman, who is associated in racing enterprises with Joe Rose of California, sold his stand in the betting ring today to Bill Mosely, who lost his bankroll since he began booking here a fortnight ago. Jackman will go to San Francisco to await the opening of the winter racing season.

KENTUCKY HORSE INTERESTS TO COMBINE.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—Colonel E. F. Clay, of Bourbon county, today issued a call for a meeting of horse breeders, land owners and other business men of central Kentucky to be held at the Phoenix Hotel Saturday at 11:30 a. m. for the purpose of perfecting an organization for mutual protection against the encroachment of such restrictive and destructive measures as the Hart-Agnew law now in force in New York. It is expected that the organization will be fashioned after and become a branch of the Personal Liberty League, now flourishing like a green bay tree in New York.

People of this section have been so vitally affected by the measures framed in other states that they have been requested to action to prevent the total destruction of their property. An attack on racing in any part of the union means a thrust at the interests of ninety per cent. of the population of central Kentucky. It has got to be a case of bread and meat with people here.

HAGGIN'S COSTLY MANSION ENDANGERED.

Lexington, Ky., July 14.—Greenhills, the mansion of J. B. Haggin at Elmhurst, was in jeopardy from fire for more than an hour this afternoon. Employees who were burning caterpillars from trees with torches set the dry grass on fire. The flames spread over fifteen acres before they were beaten out by 150 men under the direction of manager Charles H. Berryman. All of the beautiful slope from the mansion to Elkhorn Creek was burned black.

JOCKEY STERN'S FINE RECORD IN DERBYS.

George Stern has this year for the second time won three Derbys. In 1904 he won the French Derby on Ajax and the German and Austrian Derbys on Con Amore, and in the present season he steered Quinette (which he had dead-headed for the French Derby with Sea Sick II.), and Intrigant and Sieger, winners of the Austrian and the German Derby respectively. Up to July 4, Stern had also ridden seventy-six winners out of 266 mounts in France.

Winner—Br. f. by Hermene—Cherryflame (trained by J. C. Nally). Went to post at 2:45. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Rose F. off forwardly, followed the early pacemaker closely and came to the outside when entering the homestretch, then finished gamely under a drive and just managed to get up in the last stride. Royal Artillery dashed to the front and set the pace all the way, but was tiring at the end. Glenna MacBride ran prominently all the way and gamely outstayed Arlington for third place. The latter made up ground and finished well. Kildare showed early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid. Scratched—75725 Esquire, 99.

Overweights—Royal Artillery, 2 pounds; Glenna MacBride, 1.

75963 SECOND RACE—5-8 Mile. (64496—1:00-2—105.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $310.

Winner—Ch. c. by Toddlington—Luckless (trained by G. W. Graydon). Went to post at 3:11. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same. Simcoe left the barrier with a rush and ran into a commanding lead in the first quarter, but tired in the stretch and finished in a hard drive to outstay Ceremonius. The latter, after being outrun for the first time, was easily best of the others, but unable to get near the two leaders. Elsa F. ran fairly well. Seville ran poorly.

Scratched—75907 Miss Alveco, 97. Overweights—Appointment, 3 pounds; Desperado, 3 1/2.

Winner—Blk. c. by Lissac—Eva Dinsmore (trained by W. E. Phillips). Went to post at 3:57. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Under a very confident ride Lawrence P. Daley waited with behind the leaders until rounding the far turn, where he moved up with a rush on the outside, caught Polly Prim tiring in the last furlong and was drawn out hard held at the finish. Polly Prim ran a good race and was easily second best. Mortiboy dropped back on the backstretch, but came again at the end. The Clown showed early speed and tired, but rallied and finished gamely. Cock Sure set the early pace, but failed to stay. Glimmer ran a very bad race that should be thrown out.

Scratched—(75929) Minnie Adams, 109; 75946 Park Row, 95. Overweights—Mortiboy, 1 pound; Cock Sure, 1 1/2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Jonah White—Marguerite II. (trained by P. Gallagher). Went to post at 4:26. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Edgely outbroke the others, but was passed by Fleming before they had gone a sixteenth, then went to the front again on the far turn and drew away with ease. Royal Onyx was waited with until making the turn into the homestretch before making his effort, then finished fast. Prince Hohenlohe finished with a rush. Fleming showed early speed and pulled up in the last quarter. Miss Delaney finished with a rush. Refined and Allencon showed early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—75887 Ida D., 102; 75944 Gresham, 99.

way and won easily up. Reidmore, caught in a crush on the first turn and crowded back, was taken to the outside on the backstretch and carried wide on all turns, but came fast through the stretch. Imboden ran well and outstayed Zipango in the final drive. The latter followed Tom Dolan closely to the stretch and tired. Petulant finished gamely and close up. Halbard showed early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—75827 Harcourt, 105; 75910 Doubt, 98; (75910) St. Ilario, 103; 75828 Lad of Langden, 102; (75912) Arrow Swift, 91; 75910 True Boy, 103.

LEGAL TANGLE OVER NEW YORK BETTING.

Licensed Race Tracks Cannot Be Closed—Poolrooms Increasing and Win Cases.

One of the leading lawyers for the Jockey Club in commenting on the publication of Governor Hughes' possible intention to raid or close the race tracks, said:

"The fact is apparently lost sight of that under Justice Bischoff's decision oral betting and settlements after each race are legal. The police cannot therefore prevent such speculation, while under the injunction recently secured by the race tracks they cannot interfere with groups of men. The police, however, have the right to arrest all persons who record bets, and they have been particularly vigilant to this end. It is one thing to arrest a man on the charge that he has recorded a bet and another thing to produce conclusive evidence. As far as closing the tracks is concerned it should not be forgotten that the tracks are all licensed by the State Racing Commission and therefore have a legal right to operate. There is no law against horse racing in this state."

Magistrate Wahl on Saturday discharged a lot of men captured in a raid on an alleged poolroom in Eighth street. In commenting on the case the judge said:

"Although the Hart-Agnew laws have been printed in every newspaper in this city and have been the subject of discussion for weeks there are many policemen, and police captains as well, who have not the intelligence to grasp the fact that keeping a poolroom is no longer a felony but a misdemeanor. 'No policeman has a right to break into a place he suspects of being a poolroom unless he has obtained a warrant. The new law safeguards a poolroom from entry by the police in the manner of days when the maintenance of a poolroom was a felony. The police have no more right to break into a poolroom than they have to smash their way into my own home. There are few of them that realize this, however, and I suppose I shall have these cases coming before me for months to come. It takes a policeman a long time to get a new thought into his head."

When the Hart-Agnew laws were being considered it was fully and clearly set forth that their intent was solely to make poolroom keepers as nearly as possible immune from the laws and to protect them as much as possible by reducing the degree of the offense and by denying to the police the right of forcible entry without a warrant.

Hereafter it will be noted that there will be very few poolroom raids in this city, and that, although they multiply day by day, as was predicted when the Hart-Agnew bills were passed, there will be no increased activity on the part of the police. Hughes has been effective in so arranging matters as to make it possible for the poolroom men to gather in again the dinner-pail brigade of bettors.

For a long time poolrooms of New York have been doing almost wholly a credit business with men who could pay by check and whose promises were good for their losses. The open poolroom with the prices on the wall and the man behind the wicket taking fifty-cent bets is with us again and by the Hart-Agnew laws so fully protected against disturbance that they are likely to remain.

The arrest of Charles Mahoney of the Hoffman House last Friday for accepting a wager on Enfield may result in a test case, it is said. Mahoney, when arrested, was found to have a record of the wager in his pocket. He said that the record was made by the man who made the bet and that he received the wager simply to forward it to another man, who intended to place the same at the track. It was said that the Jockey Club's lawyers would look into the case and might decide to test the new law, as the matter covers several important points at issue.

The new betting law is going to make some trouble on election bets. If it is a misdemeanor to make a record of bets the wagers are a trifle up against it. It seems to be generally admitted that the recording of a wager will be a violation of the law. The new law specifically prohibits betting on elections.

As the contest will not be decided for months yet it is necessary that some record be made of any money put up. The Broadway contingent thinks it has found a way out of this difficulty.

No record will be made of bets or kept of them. Instead, if any bets of any size are arranged the terms of the wager will be published in the newspapers. It is not believed the anti-sporting element could successfully prosecute a newspaper for simply printing a statement of fact. That statement of fact, however, will be the terms of the wager and will be all the books that will be kept between the parties concerned.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Charles McKee, a gray horse six years old fell in a race at Denver a few days ago and was killed. He was by Tom Nichols—Grise.

John S. Wallace, of Lexington, a chancetaker of pronounced prowess, declares that he will soon open a race track in Cuba or Panama.

Rye has been retired to the Stamford, Conn., farm of John Hynes for the rest of the year. He has not been himself this season on account of leg troubles.

Seattle has a local favorite in Barney Oldfield, which has won all the five races in which he has started there. Garratt's Moreno—La Amiga gelding is a pretty shifty race horse nowadays.

James W. Colt, after winning one race with Waterspeed, has returned the Waterspeed mare to Henry Vingt. Mr. Colt claimed her, he says, because he considered her too good to be run in selling races.

Among the plungers at the Butte meeting is Dominick C. O'Malley, of Chicago, New Orleans or anywhere, and a general storm center everywhere. He is racing a few horses at Butte and is said to be a good winner.

When his colt Bonfils won the Woodlands Cup at Seattle, Dick Williams, his owner, declared that he was especially glad to win Barney Schreiber's trophy, because more than a quarter of a century ago he induced Schreiber to buy from Gene Leigh the first race horse he ever owned, Pennyroyal.

Until the conditions of the articles of the Irish Derby are altered, a high-class field will never be seen contesting it. As things are at present, it is a handicap pure and simple, as proved by the fact that the weight carried by the winner was 13 lb. and that of Twenty Third was 9 st. 5 lb.—Sporting Life.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. C. B., Danville, Ill. See reply to Joe D.
M. L. C., St. Louis, Mo. Roy Offutt is looking at Seattle, Wash.

Joe D. and F. J. H., Detroit, Mich. Waterspeed should have been included in the Colt entry from the start and the bet won.

Winner—Blk. f. by Star Shoot—Maribel (trained by W. Hurley).
Went to post at 2:30. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Black Mary, from a striding start, drew out in the first quarter and, setting the pace for the remainder of the journey, outstayed Great Pirate in a long closing drive. Great Pirate ran in forward and persistent pursuit of the pacemaker throughout, but could not quite get up. Gowan, from a slow inside start, was behind and closed an immense gap in a great stretch rush. Whip Top ran in close inside forward contention and finished close up. Sanguine, nearly left, made up fifteen lengths in a cracking effort. Biskra made up much ground from a bad start. Arasee, pulling up at the start and frequently afterwards, had no chance with a bad start and ride. Batsman was going rapidly in the stretch. Fascinator was prominent for five furlongs and pulled up at the end. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.
Scratched—75867 Earl's Court, 106.
Overweights—Arasee, 1 pound; Cymbal, 2; Fascinator, 2.

Winner—B. g. by Planudes—Raglan (trained by F. Purcell).
Went to post at 2:58. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Ragman was reserved in close pursuit of Chaperon to the stretch, where he drew out decisively. Chaperon made the running for nearly a half mile before giving way and was a game second. O. U. Kid, a slow beginner and shuffler in the early running, closed up with a fast stretch sprint and will prove a stayer. St. Withold, never dangerous, was outstayed and outstayed decisively. Von Laer beat the barrier and was immediately outrun, but finished well. Harold Junior showed early speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.
